The entire cooking proceeds at the correct, predetermined oven temperature. When she returns, a hot meal is ready to put on the table.

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 14:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—In all these we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.—Rom. 8:37.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Abraham Saves Lot From Danger.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Abraham Rescues Lot.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Abraham's Courage and Generosity.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Victory Through Faith and Courage.

I. Lot Taken Captive (14:1-12).
Lot's misfortune was due to his selfishness in choosing the best land regardless of the moral risks in his associations (13-10, 11). The Jordan valley was very fertile, but a place of moral snares because Sodom was there. Frequently fine pasture for cattle contains poisonous growths. Lot's trouble was not primarily because he was a bad man, but because of his associations. The steps taken by Lot as shown in chapter 13 were:

1. He lifted up his eyes and beheld (v. 10).
2. He chose him all the plain (v. 11).
3. He dwelt in the cities of the plain (v. 12).
4. He pitched his tent toward Sodom (v. 12).
5. He dwelt in Sodom (14:12).
6. He sat in the gate of Sodom (14:13).
7. He rescued Lot (14:13).
8. He rescued Lot (14:13).

Winola Kilgore is recovering from measles.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummings made a call at her father's, Leslie Hobson's, Sunday.

Harold, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saunders, passed away Thursday morning, April 29th, at his home with his mother. He was three years ago he took cold and was taken sick very soon with measles, and has never seen a well day since. Although his parents gave him everything he could wish for and the best of care, he seemed to be needed elsewhere. He was a faithful and regular member of Waterville Grange as long as health allowed. He was ever ready to play the piano at grange, circle and any of the social gatherings when requested. He bore his trouble with patience and made plans for going in the auto. The funeral was held at the home at 2 p. m., Sunday, Rev. W. I. Bull officiated and spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

The floral offerings were beautiful, from the grange, circle and Sunday school, also a beautiful wreath from neighbors, beside many other nice pieces from relatives, also a large bunch of Mayflowers. The deceased was 23 years of age. He was laid at rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

Ruth, 10½, picked Mayflowers April 24th, also more the 30th.

In the Kitchen with 6 Famous Cooks

DOLLING UP THE HUMBLE POTATO

Four Unusual Recipes by Four Famous Cooks
Don't think that after you've served potatoes mashed, creamed, and fried you've put them through all their paces. You don't have to begin repeating the old story. There are many delightful ways of preparing the humble spud, as several famous cooks have discovered. They actually glorify this homely American vegetable!

Mrs. BELLE DE GRAF

this homely American vegetable!

Tamapais Potatoes

Tamapais Potatoes aren't the very name make your mouth water? This delicious dish, prepared from left-over potatoes, is a favorite with Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco home economics counselor and writer.

Chop fine 3 cups cold boiled potatoes. Add ¼ cup of cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Pack very solid in buttered custard cups, or muffin pans. Set in a pan in a very hot oven. Bake 30 minutes, or until golden brown crust has formed which will hold the potatoes together. Turn out in individual molds.

Baked Potato "Tips"

Mrs. Sarah T. Rorer, Philadelphia cooking expert, adds two or three artful touches to baked potatoes which make them taste unusually good.

"After scrubbing large, perfect potatoes, I soak them an hour in cold water," she says.

"I bake them on the upper grate of a medium oven, and turn them after 20 minutes. I let them bake another half hour, or until they feel soft when pressed in a fork, for this allows the steam to escape and makes them heavy. Serve in a napkin at once."

"The secret of good baked potatoes is a slow oven; for a hot oven hardens the skin at once and makes the potatoes soggy."

Stuffed and Browned

Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition expert at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics, has a delectable recipe for stuffed potatoes. She fixes them like this:

6 medium-sized potatoes
½ cup milk or cream
3 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt

Select well-shaped potatoes about equal size. Bake until soft, then cut each potato at about the middle. Remove the contents, mash, add salt, butter, and sufficient cream or milk to cause the potato to heat up light. When very light, fill skins with the seasoned potato, piling it up in irregular shapes. Set the stuffed potatoes in oven a few minutes to brown.

a la Pittsburgh

Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, home economics director, of Los Angeles, teaches students to 100,000 women every year. Her Pittsburgh Potatoes are rich enough to serve as the only cooked luncheon dish, she says.

"I served with a good salad they provide a delicious meal. Here is her recipe:

1 lb. potatoes
1 cup grated cheese
1 cup bread crumbs
½ cup butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
Salt and pepper

Dice potatoes and boil until soft. Put a layer of potatoes in baking dish. Sprinkle with grated cheese, salt, pepper, butter and chopped pimientos. Add another layer of potatoes and repeat with cheese and pimientos. Cover over this one cup white sauce. Bake in oven until well browned on top.

Prepare the white sauce by melting two tablespoons butter, and stirring in flour until smooth (2 tablespoons), then add one cup milk and salt and pepper.

There you are! Four tempting potato recipes. Easy to prepare, favorites of four famous cooks. Specialists. Try them or your family. They will welcome these unique variations of the potato theme.

(Watch next week for another interesting cooking article.)

For Oil Stove Users

Women who cook with oil will appreciate one of the newer oil stove models with a reversible, hands do not come in contact with the kerosene at all.

Whitens Hands

Before using rubber gloves sprinkle baking soda lightly. You'll find them easy to remove, and your hands will be whitened.

When to Use Salt

Underneath vegetables, the roots or stems of plants should be cooked in boiling unsalted water. They contain a certain amount of weedy salt which is hardened by salt. "Top ground" ready to serve, as beans, cabbage, and onions, are much better cooked in boiling, salted water. Cooked this way they retain their color, and their flavor is intensified.

Daylight Saving

O. H. Haskell of Sweden Writes Regarding Changing Time.
 Dear Sir: I saw the call for the daylight saving meeting in your paper of April 30th at the court house. At this time I do not know how your people have decided, but I hope for standard time. As the way I look at it is people that set their time ahead or in any way advertise daylight saving time, are breaking the law as much as if they banded together to shoot deer in closed time. As there is no penalty to it they hope to get by with it. I think at this time above all others we need to all work together if we wish to boost Maine. It does not seem to me that Portland or any city or village in the state of Maine will be any better off in the end to line up against the law and the farmers. They may not love the farmers, but they need them just the same. I have an idea that quite a number of the farmers will not get up early and fall over themselves to go to Portland to trade, when they can save the day at home and have their goods come to their door from a mail order house. The same rule will apply to villages in a great measure. Thinking perhaps the farmers would like to know how some of the farmers feel about this is the reason I write.
